Dear Friend:

W. C. Connelly

I write to thank you for the kind remembrance of us, in sending us the book of the history of our ancestor.
I assure you that we appreciate it, it is a nice relic as well as very instructive and of course we that are connected either direct ly or indirectly are particularly interested, and we do appreciate the favor more than I can say and I sincerely hope that you will find a large and ready sale

for your book?

I have not read very much in it yet as I received it yesterday
but it is very interesting I can get The Treaty of "55. I think it is for you if you wish it it is

ceded the Land in Kansas to the Wyandotte when they moved from Ohio also some other old papers that may be of interest to you in your next book
