

Myandot Indians.

Eldredge H. Brown and wife and family. Brown was part Shawnee and part Myandot. About seven-eighths white. Lived now. Dec., 1917, at Mandate, Oklahoma. As good a man as ever lived anywhere.

Was of great assistance to me in the study of the Myandot language, history, and traditions. I have been a guest at his home many times - sometimes for a week or two at a time. Mrs. Brown is a white woman, and a good woman. She was a Miss. Wallace

Given me by Eldredge H. Brown in March, 1898.
